(2) The selection of the arbitrator must be in accordance with the identification in the arbitration agreement of an arbitrator, arbitration organization, or method of selection.

(3) If an arbitrator is unable or unwilling to act or if the agreed-on method of selecting an arbitrator fails, on motion of a party, the court shall select an arbitrator.

H. Disclosure by Arbitrator; Disqualification.

(3) An objection to the selection or continued service of an arbitrator and a motion for a stay of arbitration and disqualification of the arbitrator must be made under the law and procedural rules of this state, other than this rule, governing arbitrator disqualification.

(4) If a disclosure required by subdivision H(1) or (2) is not made, the court may:

(a) on motion of a party not later than 30 days after the failure to disclose is known or by the exercise of reasonable care should have been known to the party, suspend the arbitration;

(b) on timely motion of a party, vacate an award under subdivision R(1)(b); or

(c) if an award has been confirmed, grant other appropriate relief under law of this state other than this rule.

(5) If the parties agree to discharge an arbitrator or the arbitrator is disqualified, the parties by agreement may select a new arbitrator or request the court to select another arbitrator as provided in paragraph G.

(2) If a party is subject to a protection order or an arbitrator determines there is a reasonable basis to believe a party’s safety or ability to participate effectively in arbitration is at risk, the arbitrator shall stay the arbitration and refer the parties to court. The arbitration may not proceed unless the party at risk affirms the arbitration agreement in a record and the court determines:

- (a) the affirmation is informed and voluntary;
- (b) arbitration is not inconsistent with the protection order; and
- (c) reasonable procedures are in place to protect the party from risk of harm, harassment, or intimidation.

(3) If an arbitrator determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe a child who is the subject of a child-related dispute is abused or neglected, the arbitrator shall terminate the arbitration of the child-related dispute and report the abuse or neglect to the Arizona Department of Child Safety.

(4) An arbitrator may make a temporary award to protect a party or child from harm, harassment, or intimidation.

(5) On motion of a party, the court may stay arbitration and review a determination or temporary award under this paragraph.

(b) is in the best interests of the child.

(4) On confirmation, an award under this rule is enforceable as a judgment.

P. Correction by Arbitrator of Unconfirmed Award. On motion of a party made not later than 20 days after an arbitrator gives notice under subdivision N(1) of an award, the arbitrator may correct the award:

(1) if the award has an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property;

(2) if the award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits on the issues submitted; or

(3) to clarify the award.

Q. Correction by Court of Unconfirmed Award.

(1) On motion of a party made not later than 90 days after an arbitrator gives notice under subdivision N(1) of an award, including an award corrected under paragraph P, the court shall correct the award if:

(c) a ground for vacating the award under subdivision R(1) exists.

(3) If an award is subject to vacation under subdivision R(2)(a), on motion of a party, the court may amend the award if amending rather than vacating is in the best interests of the child.

(4) The court may determine a motion under subdivision R(2) or (3) based on the record of the arbitration hearing and facts occurring after the hearing or may exercise de novo review.

(5) A motion under this paragraph to vacate or amend an award must be filed not later than 90 days:

(a) after an arbitrator gives the party filing the motion notice of the award or a corrected award; or

(6) If the court under this paragraph vacates an award for a reason other than the absence of an enforceable arbitration agreement, the court may order a rehearing before an arbitrator. If the reason for vacating the award is that the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means or there was evident partiality, corruption, or misconduct by the arbitrator, the rehearing must be before another arbitrator.

(7) If the court under this paragraph denies a motion to vacate or amend an award, the court may confirm the award under paragraph O unless a motion is pending under paragraph Q.
